The Southland SL714-14K hydraulic dump trailer is a high-quality and reliable option for hauling materials and equipment. This trailer is made in Canada and features a 14-foot long by 7-foot wide box with a 16-inch height. It has a curb weight of 3,174 pounds and comes equipped with a tarp kit, ramps, stabilizer jacks, and a battery charger. The SL714-14K has a HSS tube mainframe and a 5000-pound drop leg jack. It is fitted with two 7,000-pound spring axles made by Lippert and comes with 4-235/80R16 tires mounted on 16-inch black rims. The trailer also has an adjustable 2-5/16-inch coupler and an 8-ton double acting hydraulic underbody scissor hoist.

The dump box of the SL714-14K is made with formed steel components and has 12 gauge walls and a 10 gauge floor. It has a barn door style tailgate and is equipped with a 12-volt hydraulic power-pack and an 8-foot remote control. It also has a deep cycle battery with a battery box and a 12-volt power pack.

The SL714-14K has a fully tubed frame and a lockable tool box in the A-frame that encloses the power pack. It has enclosed wiring and rubber-mounted lights, as well as LED tail lights and a lighted license plate holder. The trailer also comes with an injection-molded one-piece 7-pole RV style trailer connector, a 110 V charger kit, and a break away system.

The SL714-14K has safety chains and hooks, HD steel fenders, braking axles, and a PPG 2 component urethane finish. Business lease-to-own or personal finance options are available.
